

GOING TO SEED

SUMMER REVIVAL TOUR 2010

Seeds Trust owner Bill McDorman has been inspiring and teaching gardeners to save seeds for over 30 years. He is the founder of High Altitude Gardens and cofounder of Garden City Seeds. Eloquent, articulate and passionate beyond belief, Bill brings both experience and a new perspective to the gardening world.

With a degree in philosophy and years spent getting his hands dirty, Bill frames his lectures around the hard-hitting questions that companies like Seeds Trust are asked.

SHOULD I BUY ONLY ORGANIC SEEDS?

WHAT IS HEIRLOOM?

IS THE TERMINATOR GENE THE ENEMY?

CAN I GROW ALL MY OWN FOOD?

IS IT HARD TO SAVE TOMATO SEEDS?

vegetable, wildflower, native grass and herb seeds for a sustainable future
